

Historical Events: Causes and Impact

Although some seem insignificant, each of the events below had far-reaching consequences that reshaped the history of the world. Review each of these events by stating at least three causes and at least three short or long-range consequences.

Reasons/Causes	Event	Impact
	1454 - Gutenberg printed the first Bible
	1453 - Fall of Constantinople
	1487 - Dias rounded the Cape of Good Hope
	1517 - Tetzal sold indulgences
	(1514) Copernicus investigated Ptolemaic astronomy
	(1612) Thomas Newcomen invented the steam engine; (1769) James Watt improved it.
	1662 - Syndics of the Cloth Guild hired Rembrandt to paint their group portrait
	1663 - James II converted to Catholicism
	Jacques Necker was fired (1788)
	1844 - Fredrick Engels visits his fathers factory
	Bismarck witnessed the humiliation of the king in 1848 revolutions
	Hitler dreamed of the unity of Europe
	Schuman dreamed of the unity of Europe	